Chariton Courier.

C. P. VANDIVER. Editor and Prop'r. KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI.

Catered at the post-office at Keytesville. Mo. as second-class mail matter.

Friday, Feb. 17, 1892.

Border County Notes.

SALINE.

Mrs. George Bizants, the wife of a farmer living six miles south of Marshall, died very suddenly at her home, in the presence of her family, Tuesday morning of last week in the 55th year of her age.

Marion Spark, a dealer in horses and mules, at Marshall, shipped two car loads of these animals to St. Louis, Friday of last week. He purchased them from Conway & Co., at Slater.

Willis Taylor, a 15-year-old negro boy, died near Marshall, Wednesday night of last week, from the effects of injuries received while scuffling with another boy about his own age, a few weeks before.

David Utterback, living near Fish Creek, was leading a valuable horse along the bank one day last week, when it slipped and fell into the creek. It took three days to get him out.

C. H. Vanston, one of Saline coun ty's enterprising farmers, purchased one hundred and fifty fine steers, in North Missouri last week, and placed them on his premises, near Marshall. They crossed the river on the ice at Miami.

Owen Willis, an old and highly respected citizen, of Saline county, died at his home, near Norton, Thurs day night of last week, in the 83d year of his age. Mr. Willis was one of the pioneers of Saline county, and had been a useful man.

took fire one night last week, while the operator was temporarily ab-strike, Friday of last week. Messrs. the track without any injuries to Tucker hope to fill their places in a itself. few days by workmen from the East.

RANDOLPH.

influential citizen, died at his resi dence a short distance east of Cairo, the 79th year of his age. Mr. Campbell received a fall on the ice a couple of weeks ago, from the effects of which he died.

was injured at Moberly several ill at his room in that city, from the that county since that time. effect of his fall. Besides receiving a broken limb, he sustained injuries which are likely to prove fatal.

Freddie Miller, the 3-year-old son of W. E. Miller, at Moberly, was seriously and perhaps fatally burned Friday afternoon of last week. red hot coal stove fell over and caught the little fellow under it. His mother succeeded in getting the little fellow out, but not until he was badly burned.

Jacksonville, took fire Wednesday afternoon, and was considerably damaged before the flames could be controlled. The fire was occasioned by a defective flue, and would soon have destroyed the building but for the prompt assistance of the citi-

John Wheeldon, a fireman on a Wabash Irright train, jumped from his engine Thursday evening of last week, near Huntsville and was badly injured. He was taken to the rail road hospital at Moberly, where he now lies in a very critical condition.

A valuable horse belonging to James Hedges, a milk vender a Moberly, slipped and fell on the ice in the streets of that city Friday morning of last week, and was in stantly killed. His body struck the ground with terrific force when his feet flew from under him.

Mrs. Clay Simmons, of Nevada, the time of her death.

A difficulty occurred between Bill Smith and James Holland, a couple of colored barbers at Moberly, Thursday afternoon of last week Smith struck Holland over the head several times with an iron spike inflicting serious if not fatal wounds

CARROLL.

A. M. Herndon, a citizen of Carrollton, while splitting kindling wood one evening last week, was struck in the eye by a splinter from a stick, which penetrated the ball and destroyed the sight.

Franklin N. Dodd, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Carroll county, died at his residence near Caloam Wednesday night of last week, in the 75th year of his age. Mr. Dodd, was among the early settlers of Carroll county.

Perry Christmon, a 17-year-old boy living with his parents in the Sugar Tree bottom, shot himself through the wrist several weeks ago. Last week Drs. Highsmith and Tull, of Carrollton, had to amputate his arm, from the effects of the wound.

Isaac Furry, a farmer living in the vicinity of Standish, has a viscious hog on his premises. Last week the animal got among his horses day morning of last week in the 90th and cut one of them with its tusks so badly that it can not recover. Furry has since broke his hogship's tusks off.

The directors of the Springfield, Sedalia, and Northern railroad have at last decided to locate the bridge across the Missouri river at DeWitt. This change on the part of the di rectors will be a great disappointment to the citizens of Miami.

W. H. Miller, who lost his stove factory, at DeWitt, by fire, several weeks ago, is preparing to rebuild. He has already purchased the necessary machinery and has it on the ground. Work will commence on The passenger depot, at Slater, the building as soon as the weather

A freight train on the Wabash sent, but was discovered in time to railroad, ran into a saw log. prevent another conflagration in near Carrollton, Thursday evening that city. The damages were light. of last week, which was lying across The clerks and tailors in the Tuck- the track. The engineer and fireer & Son merchant tailor establish- man both jumped from the engine ment, at Slater, all went out on a in time to see it knock the log off

LINN.

H. J. Bates, the energetic huckster Mr. George Campbell, an old and of Linneus, shipped 4,870 fowls from that place last week to Chicago. It took several cars on the Burlington Wednesday evening of last week, in railroad to accommodate that amount of poultry.

Jonathan J. Hendricks, a prominent citizen of Linn county, was granted a pension last week, from Arthur Ross, the young man who the government of $12 per month, for injuries received during the war. weeks ago, is still lying dangerously Mr. Hendricks has been sheriff of > Albert Sharp and Mary Canon, a couple of lieutenants in thesalvation army, at Brookfield, were arrested in last week, and was seriously hurt. that city and taken to Princeton, Mercer county, on a charge of abduc tion. They ought to be punished to the extent of the law.

David Morris, a laborer in the coal mines, at Marceline, was caught by a rock in one of the shafts Thursday of last week and seriously injured. He was taken to his home in Marce-The public school building, at line, and properly carred for by Dr.

> John Hostetter, a butcher, and Joseph West, a brakeman, on the Santa Fe, at Marceline, had an altercation in that city Wednesday night of last week, which resulted in Hostetter getting badly cut with a knife in the hands of West.

> The residence, of A. J. Smith, few miles west of Marceline, and its contents were entirely consumed by fire Wednesday night of last week, entailing a loss of $500, on Mr. Smith, as he was not carrying any

An explosion of a gasoline stove in cured by insurance. the lunch counter in the Santa Fe railroad depot, at Marceline Thursday of last week, made things lively around there for awhile. Fortunately the flames were suppressed before much damage was done.

Lycurgus Allnut, a well-to-do far-Vernon county, died very suddenly mer living in the neighborhood, of at the residence of E. W. McJunkins, Meadville, lost his residence and Thursday evening of last week. The household goods by fire r riday night lady was on a visit to her sister of last week. It is the same old story; and other friends, in that city, at a defective flue was the cause of the accident. Loss, $1,800.

LIVINGSTON.

The remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Slaf ore, a citizen of Livingston county, who died while visiting in Nebraska. Monday of last week, arrived at Chillicothe Thursday following, and were interrd ein the cemetery of that city.

John Finly, a prominent farmer living near the hamlet of Jimtown, lost his residence and household ef fects Thursday night by fire. A de fective flue is supposed to have done the work. Loss, $2,300.

Three tough-looking bummers were arraigned in the police court, of Chillicothe, Thursday of last week, and were each fined $50 and costs. The court, however, remitted the fine and costs on the condition they would leave town in an hour.

All the trains on the Omaha and Brunswick branch of the Wabash railroad, were delayed several hours Wednesday morning of last week, occasioned by a rear-end collision of two freight trains near the Grand river bridge.

Mr. Edmund Allen, an old and highly respected citizen, of Living ston county, died at his rooms in the Leeper house, in Chillicothe, Thursyear of his age. His death was sud den and unexpected.

The county court room, in Chillicothe, presented the appearance.sev eral days last week, of a store of general merchandise. These goods were the liberal contributions of the liberal-hearted people of that community to the resident poor. The goods consisted of provisions and clothing.

Col. Patrick Kerby, of Chillicothe, received, Wednesday morning of last week, a full fledged partot from triends in the South. The bird is said to be well trained, and will furnish the Colonel amusement for the rest of the winter.

HOWARD.

Mr. Samuel Steunetz, one of Howcitizens, slipped and fell on the ice of last week, in the 57th year of his left hip. The injury soon resulted in the cemetery at that place Sunday. a complete paralysis of one side of his body.

John T. Grave, a farmer living a few miles south of Fayette, lost five head of cattle last week, by breaking through the ice, and freezing to death. Mr. Grave also lost several other head of stock, by slipping and falling on the ice.

James Swearinger, a farmer living five or six miles east of Fayette, was bitten one day last week by his dog. The singular movements of the animal alarmed Mr. Swearinger lest the wound develop a case of hy drophobia. The dog was killed.

Miss Mamie Smith, the amiable and accomplished daughter of John M. Smith, living in the neighborhood of Estill Station, was thrown from a spring wagon Thursday of The accident happened by the wagon slipping over an embankment.

J. R. Hughes, a farmer in the vi cinity of Fayette, had a valuable horse and mule to slip and fall on the ice one day last week, and were both so badly hurt they had to be killed. A number of other farmers have had stock injured by falling on Judge T. R. Betts, the presiding justice of the Howard county court received a letter one day last week from Illinois, making inquiry about Edward Blaine, who was killed on the C. & A. railroad, several months ago, near Glasgow. He was one of the heirs to a large estate in Illinois.

The residence of Mrs. Roberta Moore, an active and sprited business woman of Glasgow, was burned to the ground one day last week. The fire was supposed to have originated from a defective flue. It will not be an entire loss to Mrs. Moore, however, as it was partly se-

Henry Kubits, a stone mason at Glasgow, disappeared from his home, in that city, several weeks ago, and the most vigilant search and inquiry have failed to reveal his whereabouts. Fears are now entertained that while crossing the Missouri river on the ice, he slipped intoan air hole and was drowned.

MACON.

Mrs. M. E. Foster, the wife of James Foster, a farmer living in the vicipity of Kaseyville, was thrown from a sleigh Thursday afternoon of last week and severely hurt. The accident was occasioned by a team taking fright and running away.

Miss L. E. Smith, a refined and cultured young lady of Macon City, has just written and published a new book, giving a history of the rise and progress of Macon county. It is said to be very interesting to old

Mrs. V. D. Gordon, an estimable lady, died at the residence of her husband, in Macon City, Friday morning of last week in the 38th year of her age. She had an attack of typhoid fever over a year ago, from which she never recovered.

An oratorical contest between the male students, of the Macon county public school was held at LaPlatta, Friday night of last week. Quite a number of students from different parts of the county entered the con-

Mrs. S. A. Dysert, wife of B. R. Dysert, a prominent lawyer of Macon City, slipped and fell on the ice in that city one night last week, while returning from church, fracturing and dislocating one of her shoulders.

The Rev. P. Saalbarn, who has occupied the chair of ancient and modern languages in the St. James Military Academy, at Macon, has resigned, and accepted the position of missionary for the district of North Missouri.

James M. Reader, proprietor of the Boone house, the principle hotel at ard county's influential and wealthy New Cambria, died Friday morning one day last week, and fractured his age. His remains were interred in

> The United States government pays annually to the citizens living within the corporate limits of Callao the sum of $3,000, as pensions. Cal lao it will be remembered has a population of 600 or 700.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Thursday and Friday, Feb. 9 and 10 Regular Feb. Term, 1893. [Continued from last week.]

H B Richardson, circuit clerk, presents the following bills of cost certified from April,

October, and October adjourned terms of said court, which are approved, as follows, to-wit. State vs Alex Johnson...,. .$ 42 20 " Robt Heryford ... 30 15 " Oberg Hayes. 27 70 " Chas (Hig) Lessley ... 18 75 18 55 " Mary, Linnie and Ed Sprague No 1 ... Same vs same No 2.. " " No 3. " " No 4. " " No 5. 136 15 " Henry Sprague $807 88 And it is further ordered that a warrant issue in the county revenue fund, payable to the order of the said H B Richardson, circuit clerk, for said sum to be by him disbursed to the parties thereto entitled.

"Geo Waterson.

" Martin Peters.

" D Banks et al.

" A L Green.

" Jake Brummall.

Dr J F Grinstead, coroner p resents report and statement of fees and expenses in the matter of inquest held on the body of Rich. mond Hurt, deceased, amounting to $24.86, which is approved, and it is ordered that the clerk of this court certify the said sum to the county treasurer for payment to the parties

Ordered that the township collector, of Keytesville township, credit the taxes against Jas R Myers for the year 1892 with the sum of $9.40 on account of erroneous assessment of the property of the said Myers for the year 1890 and 1891.

Ordered that the township collector, of Muscle Fork township, credit the taxes as essed against Emma E. Bills for the year 1892, with the sum of $7.40 on account of erroneous assessment, of brokerage of the said Emma E. Bells for said year.

Appointment of Jas W Davis as tax attorney for Chariton county, vice Tyson 8 Dines removed to Denver, Colo., approved. A F Tooley, county treasurer, presents t the court the semi-annual settlement of his accounts, as such treasurer to 1st day Feb., 1893, which is approved.

The court proceeding to sleet grand and petit jurers for April, 1893, term of the Chariton circuit court, doth select the follow ing persons to serve as such jurors: GRAND JUROUS.

F K Venable	W J Atterbery
Garratt Dye	W A Harman
L A Spencer	M F Courtney
John Caswell	John Riley
F M Bash	B F Barnes
F H Wilhite	C A Allen
PETIT	JURORS.
L F Ray	M P Chrane
Stephen Crawford	Wm Martin
J J Ewing, jr	Chris Noll
H M Glenn	E B Welch
E T Allen	H H Green
Covey Heryford	L D Cobb
I C Couch	O O Caton
J K Robinson	W J Bogard
John T Brockman	T C Sublett
A J Miller	J G Bartow
Jas Barnett	C O Houston
W H Knox	J F Doll

Clerk ordered to certify list of jurors a

In the matter of the division of the schoo fund of township 56-21, it is ordered that A F Tooley, county treasurer, pay to the treasurer, of Livingston county, for account of said school fund, the sum of $438.46. the said sum having been ascertained by this court, to be the proportion of said school fund due to said Livingston county.

Taxable wealth of the railroads, in Chari ton county, fixed as follows for the year C, S-F & C, $15,000 for main track and $7,500 per mile for side tracks. Wabash, same.

B & C branch, same

CB&KC$7,500 per mile for main trac and $3,750 per mile for side tracks. Glasgow branch, Wabash, $5,000 mile for main track $2,500 per mile for side tracks.

Bonds to school fund approved as follows B R Collett for $625. Linnie Sneed for $400. Allowances as follows:

O B Anderson $12.20, waiting on county ourt at October adjourned term 1892. H B Richardson $5.10, services as clerk a

October adjourned term of circuit court. A F Tooley, $250, salary as county treas urer for Nov. and Dec, 1892, and Jan, 1893. old child, of Mary Sprague, while its mother was confined in the county jail, during Oct and Nov, 1892.

court for two days in Jan, 1893, guarding prisoners on rock pile, guarding insane man and waiting on county court for five days at Feb term, 1893. Martin & Applegate, $4.50, medicine fo prisoners in jail. F M Veatch, $3, posting of election and for Nov election, 1892. T T Crouse, $105, services as janitor, court house for Nov and Dec, 1892, and Jan.

John Nickerson, $53.60, services as count; judge in Dec, 1892, visit of inspection to county poor farm, salary as county judge for judge for five days in Feb. 1893. J B Hyde, $62.35 same and expenses state road convention at Sedalia.

J. A. Redding, $21.60, services as count judge at Feb term 1893. Ordered that court do now adjourn unt 2nd Monday in March, 1893.

Since the burial of Mr. Blaine's body, at Oak Hill cemetry, vandals and curiosity-seekers have turned out in such force that it has been necessary to place a guard at the grave in order to prevent it 50 95 being stripped of the flowers placed upon it. Women are the chief of fenders. All of the visitors are not of the same style, however, and many admirers of the dead states man have brought floral tributes to be laid upon the grave.

> CAPTAIN WILSON, and his life-saving crew, of Point Sable, went to Ludington, Michigan, Friday of last week on foot, the roads all being blocked up with snow. He reported the burning of the house of Earnest Bockus, a resident of Lincoln, three miles north of that place Thursday night. One of the Bockus boys was roasted to death, while another had a narrow escape. The children had been left alone by their parents.

ROBERT STONEHOCKER, a resident of Barnard, Gentry county. committed suicide Wednesday night of last week by shooting himself in the right side of his head, just behind the right ear, with a 32 caliber revolver. Stonehocker was a hard drinker and was considerably under the influence of liquor a few hours | Electric Bitters cured him. before he shot himself.

zed indians desirous of becoming Arnica Salve cured him entirely citizens.

ESTIMATES of leading Montana cattlemen, in Montana, are that at least 25 per cent of the cattle on the ranges have been lost from the storms and terribly cold weather of the past two weeks.

ALGERNON CHARLES F. SARTORIS, the husband of General Ulyssess S. Grant's daughter, Nellie, died at Capri, February 3d, but the news of his death was delayed several days and excited much interest in American circles.

Dr. C. R. HALLEY, and Miss Laura Craddock, both of Mexico, Missouri, went to La Plata, Mo., and were married there at 11 o'clock, Wednesday morning of last week. It was the greatest wedding surprise of the FOURTEEN years ago Frank Grennel, a teller in the Honesdale, Pa. bank, embezzled $3,000 and fled. He traveled the country and finally settled down in Grand Rapids, Mich. Friday of last week he returned to his old home, was at once recognized and arrested.

ACTING GOV. GILL. of Illinois, Thursday of last week ordered the issue of a requisition on the governor of Missouri for Harry Hutchinson, who, with She ny Harris, is under indictment, in Chicago, for the murder of Florence Burl, alias Bertha Fisher.

THE body of William Butler was found hanging to a limb, riddled with bullets, on Hickory creek, five miles southeast of Paris, Texas, Friday of last week. He was a stepson of Henry Smith, who was burned alive at that place on Wednesday. and made himself notorious during the search for Smith.

THE farmers of the South appear te be in danger of repeating their great error of 1891 in raising a cron of cotton too large to be profitably O B Anderson, $10, for board of three year marketed. The effects of that error were extremely disastrous to the people of the Southern states last year and brought thousands of farmers to the brink of bankruptcy.

IT was 10:30 o'clock Saturd v night of last week when Frank Brown, who had passed several counterfeit silver dollars during the stock law notices, in Keytesville township, day, at New Port, Arkansas, was run down and searched. Only $1 of the stuff was found on his person. It was a splendid peace of work, but of very inferior stuff

THE people down South are gettwo days in Jan. 1893, and salary as county | ting a little tired of paying pensions. even to their own distinguished people. The memory of Jefferson Davis lives in the person of his widow, in the South, and all that sort of thing, but the Alabama senate the other day rejected a bill to grant her a pension of $500 a year.

> County Judges B. F. Copenhaver and Thomas Nevitt, of St. Chir county, who are under sentence of confinement in the Jackson county jail for contempt of the United States court in refusing to order a tax levy to pay outstanding bonds of the county, returned to their quarters in jail Thursday night of last week. They had been home on a furlough with the consent of Judge Philips.

DESPITE the high wind and the cold, Clifford Calverty, the champion high wire rope walker of the world, Friday of last week went out on his wire rope over the Niagara gorge, with the water and ice running by fully 200 feet below. Calverty did not take a balancing pole, but walked with his arms outstretched. He balanced himself on one leg for awhile and gave as much of an exhibition as he could with the swaying of the wire.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away. and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of CONGRESSMAN MANSUR presented eight years' standing. Used three to the house one day last week an bottles of Electric Bitters and seven elaborate report from the territories | boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and committee in favor of the bill to his leg is sound and well. John allow Indians who have become Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large American citizens changes of venue fever sores on his leg, doctors said from Indian to federal courts. The he was incurable. One bottle Elecmeasure is intended to make civili- tric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Sold by W. C. GASTON

DRPRICE'S Legill Baking The only Pure Cream of Tartar Powder. - No Ammonia; No Alum.

Used in Millions of Homes-40 Years the Standard.